

HUMANITIES+

GET STARTED GUIDE

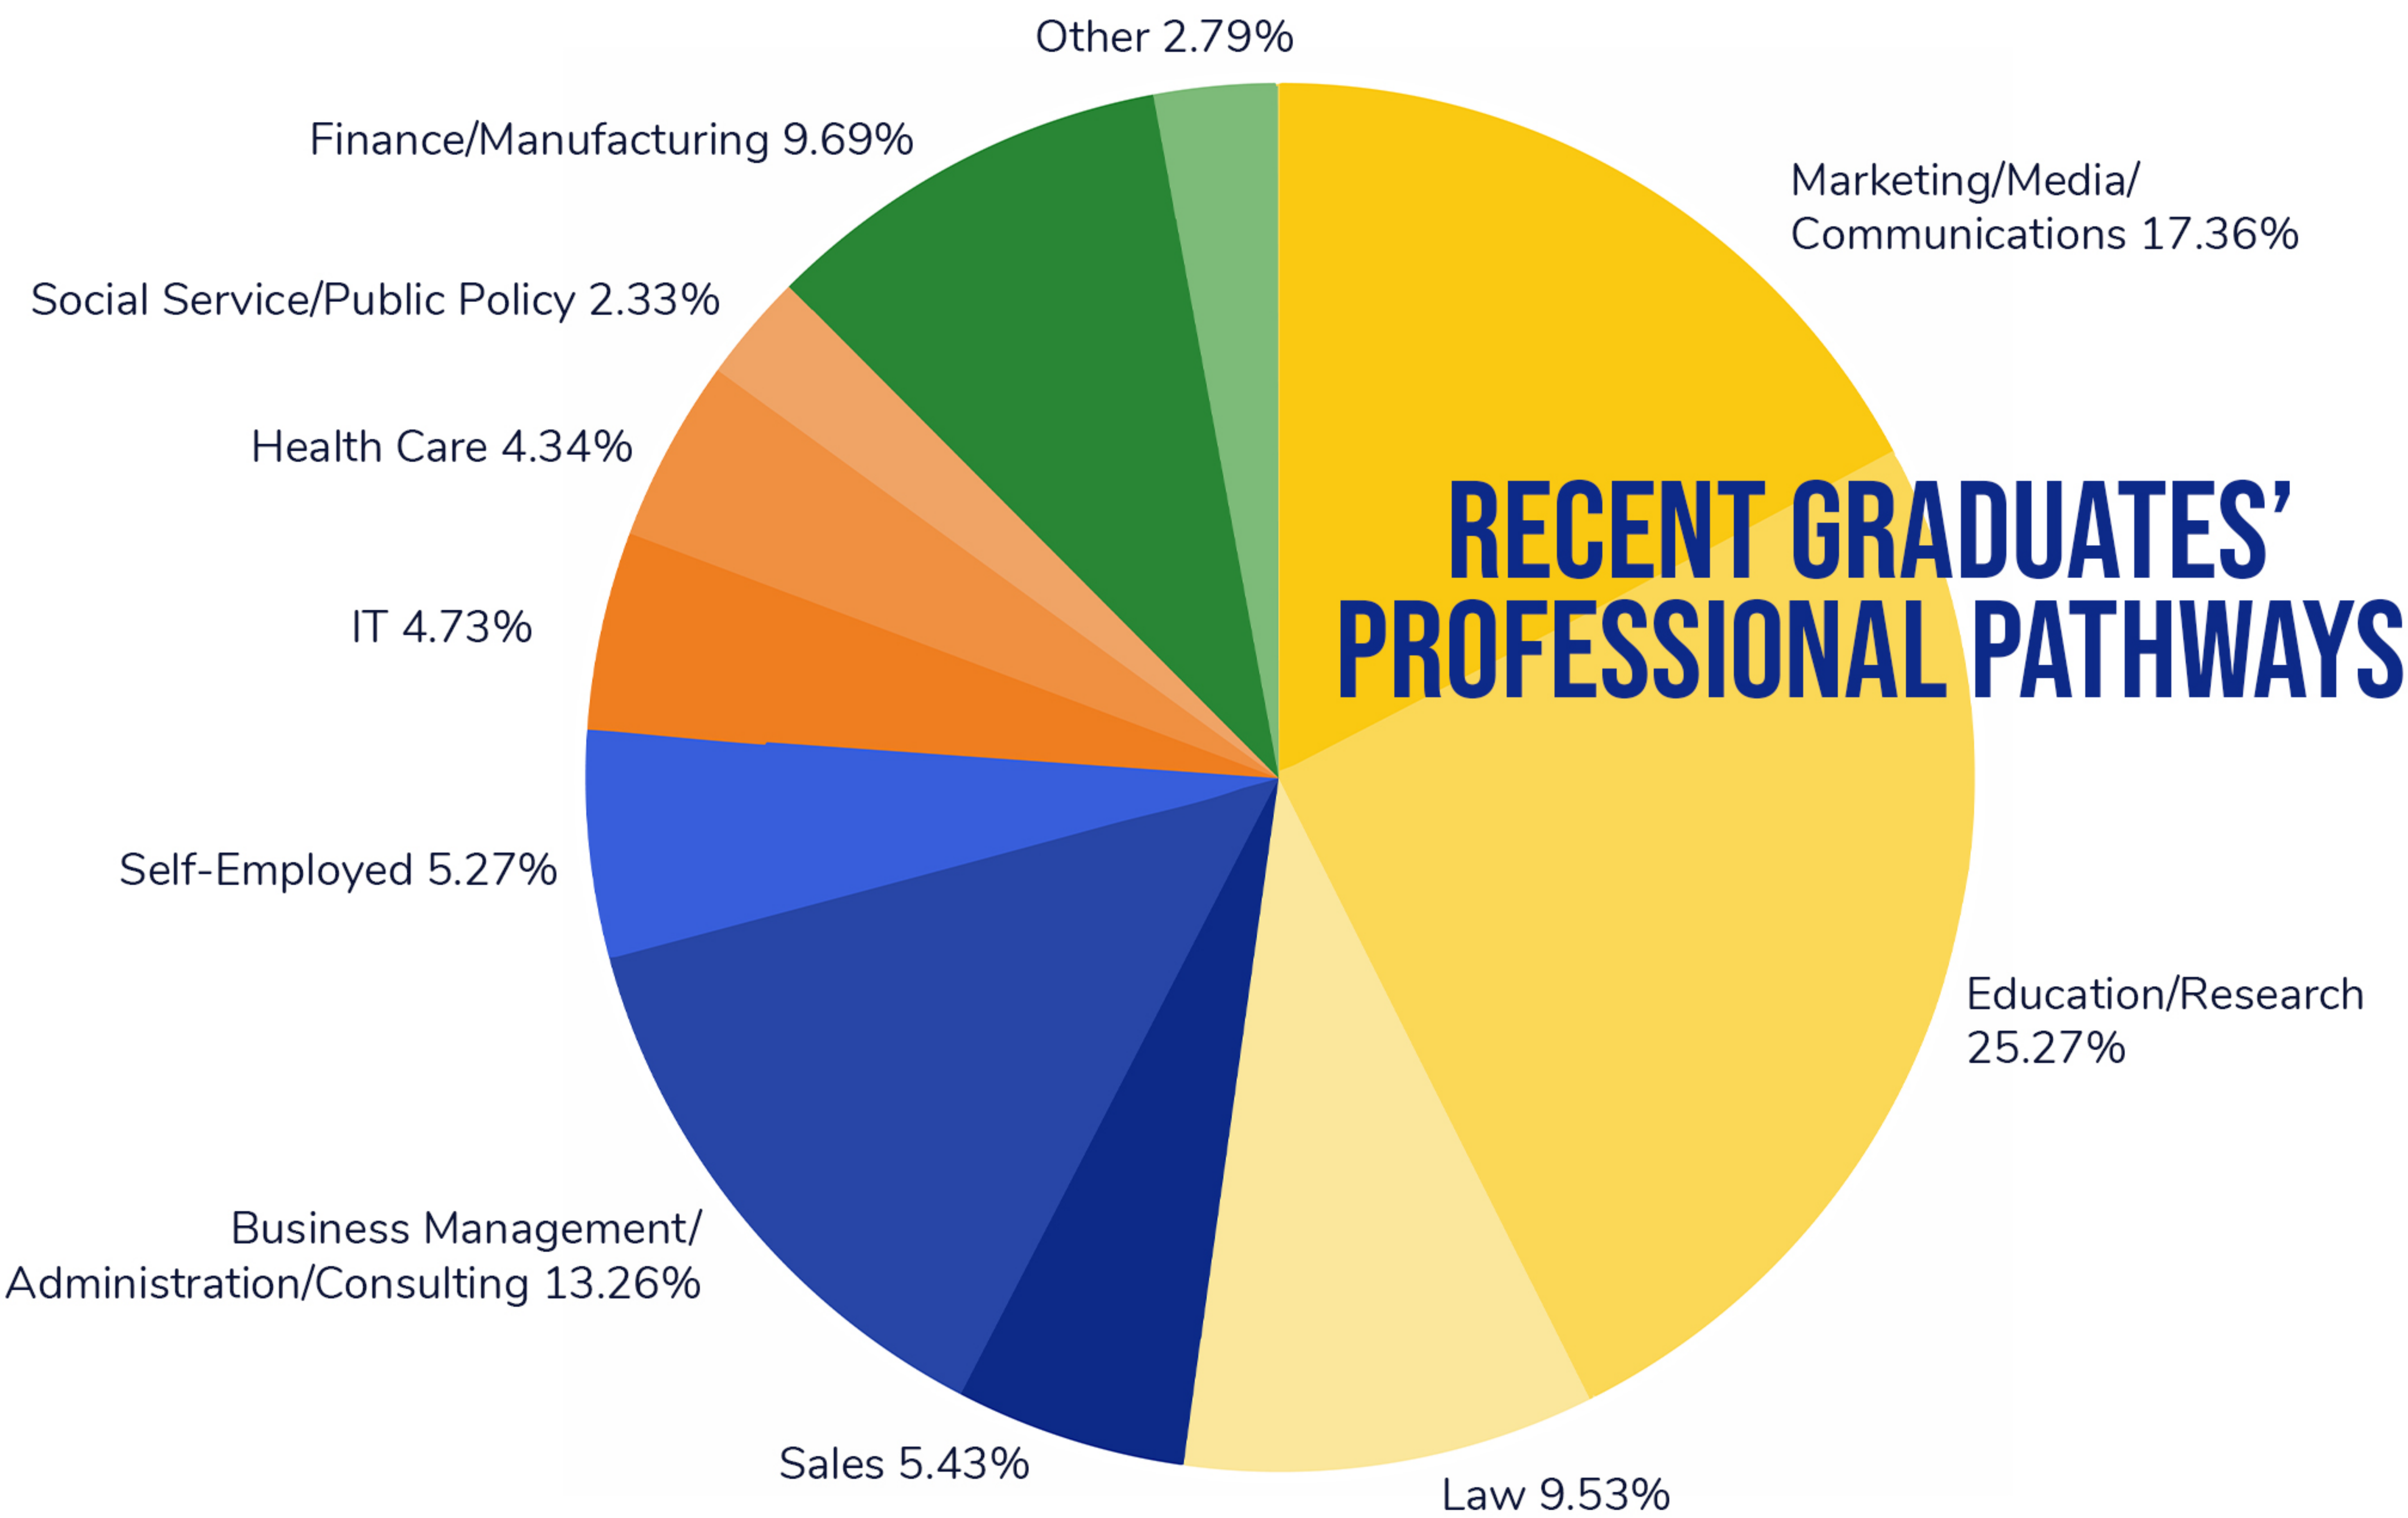

LET'S GET STARTED!

HUMANITIES + is about getting ready for life after graduation as you integrate your major with professionalized experiences and communicate the value of your Humanities education.

LAUNCH FORWARD TOWARD YOUR FUTURE!

PLAN YOUR PATH

Humanities majors have a diverse range of professional opportunities thanks to the core competencies they develop in their program:

COMMUNICATION

Articulate and write coherent explanations and arguments with attention to the implications of language.

INFORMATION LITERACY

Locate credible information, identify patterns, and connect them to relevant contexts.

CULTURAL NAVIGATION

Observe and interpret the nuances of another culture through its language as well as its history, traditions, and practices.

Portable and durable, Humanities Competencies will give you a professional edge.

PLAN YOUR PATH

FIRST STOP: THE LAAC!

Your advisor in the Liberal Arts Advisement & Careers office can help plan your courses and experiences and make connections between the two.

CAREER READINESS

Don't know your advisor? No worries! Find your advisor here at the link below:

H+ FUNDING

Humanities majors and minors can get funding for internships and study abroad, as well as foreign language student residences and alternative professionalizing experiences.

Apply for funding at:

humplus.forms.byu.edu.

MENTORED RESEARCH

Humanities Undergraduate Mentoring (H.U.M.) Grants involve working one-on-one with a professor on independent research. Form a project, find a professor, and get a grant to support your work.

Apply at: <https://humgrants.byu.edu/>

* Students may need to receive approval from their majors, if applicable

TELL YOUR STORY

Communicate how your studies and experiences have prepared you for graduate school and a career.

See how other students write about their experiences here:
